John, Jill and Brenda are flying to Cape Town on 19 February to lead a mission called 'Growing Together'. To help bless the people they are ministering to they would love you to help by donating any unwanted small Christmas gifts, chocolate and sweets and small soft toys. There is a box at the back of the church for donations. Nothing large, please, as all will have to go in their cases. They will put together a prayer sheet so you can pray them through this time.

This part-time role (20 hours) requires a genuine desire for working with seniors and a level of leadership experience in equipping, empowering and encouraging a team of volunteers. Relevant work experience is necessary, preferably in a church setting, although this is not essential. Deadline for applications: Tue 6 March with interviews expected to be held in late March.
