Week 5: Gethsemane – The Agony Of Surrender

Introduction:

Simon noted in his sermon that Gethsemane and the events surrounding it call for our worship and submission, not for our dissection and analysis and so this week's notes are aimed to help us do just that. There won't be time in our life groups to read and reflect on all the passages below, so either pick one passage from each section or read all the passages in one section, starting with the prayer.

The Prayer

Slowly read Mark 5:32-42; Matthew 26:36-46;
Luke 22:39-46

What details strike you from these passages?
What do you sense the Holy Spirit is saying to you?

The Arrest

Slowly read Matthew 26: 47-56; Mark 14:43-52;
Luke 22:47-53; John 18:1-14

What details strike you from these passages?
What do you sense the Holy Spirit is saying to you?

The Denial

Slowly read Matthew 26:69-74; Mark 14:66-72;
Luke 22:54-62; John 18:15-18, 25-27

What details strike you from these passages?

What do you sense the Holy Spirit is saying to you?

Conclusion:

Share your thoughts with someone if you are not meeting in a group.
