

Be Rich Part 2 10/05/26
Powerful Words - Ephesians 1:15-23, 3:14-21

Introduction

In these verses we discover a great deal about praying for others, as well as ourselves.

Read Ephesians 1:15-23

1. Why is Paul so thankful in his prayers for the Ephesians v 15-16?
2. What are the qualities Paul prays into the Ephesians lives?
3. Why do you think he focusses his prayers in this way?
4. What is the connection between the content of v 1-14 and the prayers of v15-23?
5. How do verses 22-23 expand on Paul's discussion of Christ's headship that began in v 9-10?
6. How is the church central to God's plans for the universe?

Read Ephesians 3:14-21

7. What else does Paul pray for the Ephesians?
8. To what extent have prayers for power and love been answered in your life?
9. What differences do you notice about how you pray for yourself and others and how Paul prays in these passages?
10. What changes might you make?

Be Rich Part 2 10/05/26
Powerful Words - Ephesians 1:15-23, 3:14-21

Introduction

In these verses we discover a great deal about praying for others, as well as ourselves.

Read Ephesians 1:15-23

1. Why is Paul so thankful in his prayers for the Ephesians v 15-16?
2. What are the qualities Paul prays into the Ephesians lives?
3. Why do you think he focusses his prayers in this way?
4. What is the connection between the content of v 1-14 and the prayers of v15-23?
5. How do verses 22-23 expand on Paul's discussion of Christ's headship that began in v 9-10?
6. How is the church central to God's plans for the universe?

Read Ephesians 3:14-21

7. What else does Paul pray for the Ephesians?
8. To what extent have prayers for power and love been answered in your life?
9. What differences do you notice about how you pray for yourself and others and how Paul prays in these passages?
10. What changes might you make?

Personal reflection:

Talk to God about times prayer for others has been hard for you. It can be especially difficult to pray for those we are deeply concerned about when we are confused about their needs and what might be best for them. Take time to allow him to listen you fully. What might He be saying to you?

Personal reflection:

Talk to God about times prayer for others has been hard for you. It can be especially difficult to pray for those we are deeply concerned about when we are confused about their needs and what might be best for them. Take time to allow him to listen you fully. What might He be saying to you?